PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS:

I, the undersigned, understand:

- (1) Course and examination approval is for one year only. Renewal of the course and examination approval must be completed by June 30 of each year. A renewal application for course and examination approval will be forwarded to the approved course provider by the Board.
- (2) Courses and examinations shall comply with and maintain minimum requirements as specified in the Responsible Vendor Act and the Course of Instruction and Examination Guidelines as established by the ABC Board. Courses shall be submitted for approval to the ABC Board in typewritten form before being used for training purposes. Copyright violations and/or plagiarism of another course are grounds for disapproval. The ABC Board reserves the right to withdraw approval of a course. Course content shall be reviewed at least annually by the ABC Board.
- (3) Notwithstanding any contractual agreements between licensees and private course providers, ultimate responsibility for compliance with program requirements, deadlines or dates shall remain that of the licensee.
- (4) The format of the course of instruction shall include face-to-face training and question and answer opportunities.
- (5) Private course providers must inform licensees that when utilizing any course of instruction developed but not administered by personnel of a private course provider they shall notify the ABC Board of training dates in sufficient time that compliance specialists may attend training prior to application, and at such other times as requested by the ABC Board.
- (6) In the event a private course provider contracts with, or otherwise agrees, to provide maintenance of Responsible Vendor records for licensees of the Board, such records are the property of said licensee. In the event such services are no longer extended to the licensee said records will be made available to the licensee. In addition, any and all records maintained for the licensee shall be made available for inspection at all times to authorized ABC Board personnel.
- (7) Course providers are ultimately responsible for the proper administration of the approved courses and examinations.
- (8) Private course providers who request cancellation of approval by the Board shall do so in writing sixty (60) days prior. Before the canceling of approval by the Board for any reason, the private course provider shall notify all licensees for whom the private course provider provides training and/or records maintenance that cancellation of approval has occurred.

Statement of Agreement and Understanding

"I have read and understand the statements above and hereby agree to maintain the approved courses and examinations in accordance with the Course of Instruction and Examination Guidelines as established by the ABC Board. I further agree to ensure that the courses and examinations will be administered in accordance with standards approved by the Board. I further agree to notify the Board sixty (60) days in the event that I should request that the approval of the courses and examinations be cancelled."
